NOTIFICATION REGARDING ATTENDANCE

All students of the University are hereby directed to visit the CUMS portal through their respective Login IDs and regularly check their attendance status, which is being updated daily.

Students are hereby informed that if their attendance is less than 75%, they shall be detained from appearing in the upcoming End-Semester Examination. Students are advised to ensure that they maintain the required attendance well before the Mid-Semester Examination, as there shall be no shortage of attendance condonation at the Mid-Semester Examination. They will not claim any attendance relaxation during End Semester Examination.

The current attendance status is available on the CUMS portal. In case of any discrepancy, students should immediately contact the concerned Faculty Member/Course Instructor. If required, the concerned HOD may also be contacted for necessary clarification/update.

Students are further informed that the attendance portal shall be locked on or before the Mid-Semester Examination, and no correction/alteration in attendance shall be entertained thereafter. But it surely affects the attendance in the End-Semester Examination. There shall be strict compliance with the Academic Rules and Regulations of NSUT (enclosed).

This issues with the approval of the Competent Authority.
